M E E T A N G E L A

I'm Angela, the owner of Rutland Florals. I love being able to share in the love of two individuals and feel blessed to get to work with such wonderful people each day.

Based in the heart of Rutland, my passion for flowers has grown and now there isn't a day that goes by that I don't have my apron on.

My journey began many years ago in the garden, where I found my love for flowers. I have been growing as long as I can remember, but it was only as a bride myself when I began a journey into arranging and discovered a whole new love for floristry. I underwent professional training at both The Cambridge Flower School and Kays Flower School, Ireland.

My love for horticulture has equipped me with a unique perspective on the beauty of flowers in nature and it is this which is ingrained in the core of my floristry practice.

A rustic dining room with a wooden table, chairs, and a large window. The room features a wooden table with a large bouquet of flowers on it. Several wooden chairs with woven seats are arranged around the table. A large window with a black frame is visible on the right side, offering a view of a blue landscape. The ceiling has a decorative archway. The overall atmosphere is warm and inviting.

YOU HAVE QUESTIONS

Q: What sets you apart from other Florists?

A: With years of horticultural experience under my belt, I know how to get the most out of flowers in their natural environment, and translate that to the vase or arrangement. I love to let the natural beauty of the blooms shine.

Q: What will my bouquet actually look like?

A: I could make up 4 bouquets using exactly the same flowers and it will look different every time. So there is no way to know exactly. However, for a small charge Rutland Florals can produce samples of the wedding flowers or a mock up, so you can rest easy knowing what you've had a little peek inside your big day blooms

Q: How big is your team?

A: All your blooms are designed and curated by me. I then have a team of a couple of freelance assistants to help with arranging for large wedding installs.

Q: What if I change my mind on the theme or colour scheme?

A: Thats okay! You have until 8 weeks before to make any changes. After the final consultation the details are locked in, so I can order your blooms, so if you decide you actually HATE that blush then you'd loved 12 months ago, let me know sooner.

Q: How far in advance do I need to book?

A: If you're choosing our Full Works service, to ensure you can secure us for your special day you need to be booking 6 months in advance. We do have some late availability, so it's always worth a check, For our Mini service, we can turn this around in as little as two weeks.

Q: Will photos of my day or my blooms be posted publicly on your site or social media?

A: I respect your privacy and allow each client to decide whether or not they want their photos displayed publicly. I'd love to show off you & your images, if you're game! If not, that's okay, too.

WE HAVE ANSWERS

Q: I don't know anything about flowers, what I need or want

A: Then you're in the right place. A specialist Wedding Florist has all the expertise to advise you on the right flowers for your day - where to place your arrangements to ensure they live on in your photos and and your memories forever.

Q: Do you have a list of preferred vendors to use?

A: Yes! From wedding planners to photographers and caterers, we have worked with some of the best companies in the industry & would love to share their information with you!

Q: I need Thank You flowers for the day too. Do you do gifts?

A: Yes! We can put together arrangements to thank those special people in your life who have made the day possible. We will happily drop these off to the Reception Venue for you, so you don't need to worry about a thing.

Q: What if our plans have to change on the day

A: An experienced wedding florist deal with anything your day has to throw at it. Rain, wind or shine, the only thing we care about at Rutland Florals is making sure your day goes off without a hitch. So you can rest assured that we got this and.

Q: I must have a particular flower for my day. Can you guarantee that?

A: As I am subject to what can be provided by wholesalers, I cannot guarantee the availability of any particular flower, especially if its a specific variety. I will always endeavour to obtain a couples request and will of course meet this need wherever possible. If, however I struggle to find exactly what you need, we can always look to work with an artificial alternative to mix in with your fresh florals, should this be key to your day.

Q: How do we reserve our wedding date?

A: A small deposit & signed contract is required in order to get your wedding day on the calendar. The remainder of your balance is due eight weeks prior to your wedding.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The Process

You'll be invited to an initial consultation where we will learn all about you and discuss all the finer details of your day. I will then put together a bespoke Vision Board and Quotation for you. We will arrange a venue visit, samples or mock ups upon request, at an additional charge and before the big day, we will have one last call to run through the final details.

Payment

A small non-refundable deposit is required in order to secure your date. The remaining balance is due eight weeks before your wedding.

Scheduling

Weddings are scheduled 6-12 months in advance. All deposits are non-refundable.
